I could not speak for a little while as I took the money for thinking of the many, many things this grand old man had done for me.

"Do ye think these boots 'll do?" he asked as he held up to the light the pair he had taken off in the evening.

"They look all right," I said.

"Ain't got no decent squeak t' 'em now, an' they seem t' look kind o' clumsy. How're your'n?" he asked.

I got them out from under the berth, and we inspected them carefully, deciding in the end they would pass muster.

The steward had made up our berths, when he came, and lit our room for us. Our feverish discussion of attire had carried us far past midnight, when we decided to go to bed.

"S'pose we mustn't talk t' no strangers there 'n New York," said Uncle Eb as he lay down. "I've read 'n the Tribune how they'll purtend t' be friends an' then grab yer money an' run like Sam Hill. If I meet any o' them fellers they're goin' t' find me purty middlin' poor comp'ny."

We were up and on deck at daylight, viewing the Palisades. The lonely feeling of an alien hushed us into silence as we came to the noisy and thickening river craft at the upper end of the city. Countless window panes were shining in the morning sunlight. This thought was in my mind—that somewhere in the innumerable host on either side was the one dearer to me than any other. We inquired our way at the dock and walked to French's hotel on Printing House square. After breakfast we went and ordered all the grand new things we had planned to get. They would not be ready for two days, and after talking it over we decided to go and make a short call.

Hope, who had been up and looking for us a long time, gave us a greeting so hearty we began to get the first feeling of comfort since landing. She was put out about our having had breakfast, I remember, and said we must have our things brought there at once.

"I shall have to stay at the hotel awhile," I said, thinking of the new clothes.

"Why," said Mrs. Fuller, "this girl has been busy a week fixing your rooms and planning for you. We could not hear of your going elsewhere. It would be downright ingratitude to her."

A glow of red came into the cheeks of Hope that made me ashamed of my remark. I thought she looked lovelier in her pretty blue morning gown, covering a broad expanse of crinoline, than ever before.

"And you've both got to come and hear me sing tonight at the church," said she. "I wouldn't have agreed to sing if I had not thought you were to be here."

We made ourselves at home, as we were most happy to do, and that afternoon I went downtown to present to Mr. Greeley the letter that David Brower had given me.

CHAPTER XIX.

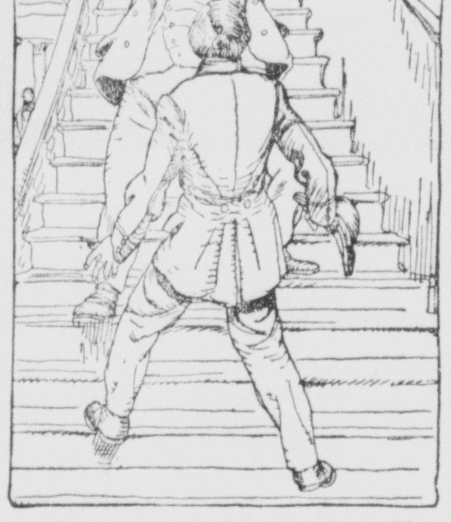
I CAME down Broadway that afternoon aboard a big white omnibus that drifted slowly in a tide of many vehicles. Those days there were a goodly show of trees on either side of that thoroughfare—elms, with here and there a willow, a sumach or a mountain ash. The walks were thronged with handsome people—dandies with high hats and flaunting neckties and swinging canes; beautiful women, each covering a broad circumference of the pavement, with a cone of crinoline that swayed over dainty feet. From Grace church down it was much of the same thing we see now, with a more ragged sky line. Many of the great buildings, of white and red sandstone, had then appeared, but the street was largely in the possession of small shops—oyster houses, bookstores and the like.

Not until I neared the sacred temple of the Tribune did I feel a proper sense of my own littleness. There was the fountain of all that wisdom which had been read aloud and heard with reverence in our household since a time I could but dimly remember. There sat the prophet who had given us so much—his genial views of life and government, his hopes, his fears, his mighty wrath at the prospering of cruelty and injustice.

"I would like to see Mr. Horace Greeley," I said rather timidly at the counter.

"Walk right up those stairs and turn to the left," said a clerk as he opened a gate for me.

Ascending, I met a big man coming down hurriedly and with heavy steps. We stood dodging each other a moment with that unfortunate co-ordination of purpose men sometimes encounter when passing each other. Suddenly the big man stopped in the middle of the stairway and held both of his hands above his head.



"Young man, take your choice!"

"In God's name, young man," said he, "take your choice!"

He spoke in a high, squeaky voice that cut me with the sharpness of its irritation. I went on past him and entered an open door near the top of the stairway.

"Is Mr. Horace Greeley in?" I inquired of a young man who sat reading papers.

"Back soon," said he without looking up. "Take a chair."

In a little while I heard the same heavy feet ascending the stairway two steps at a time. Then the man I had met came hurriedly into the room.

"This is Mr. Greeley," said the young man who was reading.

The great editor turned and looked at me through gold rimmed spectacles. I gave him my letter out of a trembling hand. He removed it from the envelope and held it close to his big, kindly, smooth shaven face. There was a fringe of silky, silver hair, streaked with yellow, about the lower part of his head from temple to temple. It also encircled his throat from under his collar. His cheeks were full and fair as a lady's, with rosy spots in them, and a few freckles about his nose. He laughed as he finished reading the letter.

"Are you Dave Brower's boy?" he asked in a drawling falsetto, looking at me out of gray eyes and smiling with good humor.

"By adoption," I answered.

"He was an almighty good rassler," he said deliberately as he looked again at the letter.

"What do you want to do?" he asked abruptly.

"Want to work on the Tribune," I answered.

"Good Lord!" he said. "I can't hire everybody."

I tried to think of some argument, but what with looking at the great man before me and answering his questions and maintaining a decent show of dignity I had enough to do.

"Do you read the Tribune?" he asked.

"Read it ever since I can remember."

"What do you think of the administration?"

"Lot of dough faces," I answered, smiling, as I saw he recognized his own phrase. He sat a moment tapping the desk with his penholder.

"There's so many liars here in New York," he said, "there ought to be room for an honest man. How are the crops?"

"Fair," I answered. "Big crop of boys every year."

"And now you're trying to find a market," he remarked.

"Want to have you try them," I answered.

"Well," said he very seriously, turning to his desk, that came up to his chin as he sat beside it, "go and write me an article about rats."

"Would you advise"— I started to say, when he interrupted me.

"The man that gives advice is a bigger fool than the man that takes it," he fleered impatiently. "Go and do your best."

Before he had given me this injunction he had dipped his pen and begun to write hurriedly. If I had known him longer I should have known that while he had been talking to me that tireless mind of his had summoned him to its service. I went out in high spirits and sat down a moment on one of the benches in the little park near by to think it all over. He was going to measure my judgment, my skill as a writer, my resources. "Rats," I said to myself thoughtfully. I had read much about them. They infested the ships, they overran the wharfs, they traversed the sewers. An inspiration came to me. I started for the water front, asking my way every block or two. Near the East river I met a policeman—a big, husky, good hearted Irishman.

"Can you tell me," I said, "who can give me information about rats?"

"Rats?" he repeated. "What d' ye wan' t' know about thim?"

"Everything," I said. "They've just given me a job on the New York Tribune," I added proudly.

He smiled good naturedly. He had looked through me at a glance.

"Just say 'Tribune,'" he said. "Ye don't have t' say 'New York Tribune' here. Come along wi' me."

He took me to a dozen or more of the dock masters.

"Give 'im a lift, my hearty," he said to the first of them. "He's a green hand."

I have never forgotten the kindness of that Irishman, whom I came to know well in good time. Remembering that day and others, I always greeted him with a hearty "God bless the Irish!" every time I passed him, and he would answer, "Amen, an' save yer riverince."

He did not leave me until I was on my way home loaded with fact and fable and good dialect with a savor of the sea in it.

Hope and Uncle Eb were sitting together in his room when I returned.

"Guess I've got a job," I said, trying to be very cool about it.

"A job!" said Hope eagerly as she rose. "Where?"

"With Mr. Horace Greeley," I answered, my voice betraying my excitement.

"Jerusalem!" said Uncle Eb. "Is it possible?"

"That's grand!" said Hope. "Tell us about it."

Then I told them of my interview with the great editor and of what I had done since.

"Ye done wonderful!" said Uncle Eb, and Hope showed quite as much pleasure in her own sweet way.

I was for going to my room and beginning to write at once, but Hope said it was time to be getting ready for dinner.

When we came down at half after 6 we were presented to our host and the guests of the evening—handsome men and women in full dress—and young Mr. Livingstone was among them. I felt rather cheap in my frock coat, although I had thought it grand enough for anybody on the day of my graduation. Dinner announced, the gentlemen rose and offered escort to the ladies, and Hope and Mrs. Fuller relieved our embarrassment by conducting us to our seats—women are so deft in those little difficulties.

The dinner was not more formal than that of every evening in the Fuller home—for its master was a rich man of some refinement of taste—and not at all comparable to the splendid hospitality one may see every day at the table of a modern millionaire. But it did seem very wonderful to us, then, with its fine mannered servants, its flowers, its abundant silver. Hope had written much to her mother of the details of deportment at John Fuller's table, and Elizabeth had delicately imparted to us the things we ought to know. We behaved well, I have since been told, although we got credit for poorer appetites than we possessed. Uncle Eb took no chances and refused everything that had a look of mystery and a suggestion of peril, dropping a droll remark betimes that sent a ripple of amusement around the table

GIRLHOOD WOMANHOOD AND MOTHERHOOD

The first lesson that the young girl has f womanhood is usually a painful one. he learns to know what headache means, nd backache, and sometimes is sadly orne down by this new experience of life.

All the pain and misery which young irls commonly experience at such a time ay, in almost every instance, be entirely revented or cured by the use of Doctor ierce's Favorite Prescription. It estab- shes regularity. It tones up the general ealth, and cures headache, backache, ervousness and other consequences of omanly weakness or disease.

The anxious mother of the family often- mes carries the whole burden of responsi- lity so far as the home medication of ommon ailments of the girls or boys are oncerned. The cost of the doctor's visits very often much too great. At such mes the mother is invited to write to Dr. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., for medical dvice, which is given free. Correspond- nce is held strictly confidential.

Backed up by over a third of a century remarkable and uniform cures, a record ch as no other remedy for the diseases d weaknesses peculiar to women ever tained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. ierce's Favorite Prescription now feel lly warranted in offering to pay $500 in gal money of the United States for any se of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Pro- psus, or Falling of Womb, which they nnot cure. All the World's Dispensary edical Association, Proprietors, of Buf- lo, N. Y., ask is a fair and reasonable ial of their means of cure.

"Your wonderful medicine, 'Favorite Prescrip- on,' has helped me greatly in time of suffer- g," writes Mrs. Minta Wright, of Edwards, d. "Last winter I was unable to do my work, as to be confined in February, and a lady in inois wrote and told me about your medicine. used three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' d will say I had the easiest and quickest con- ement I ever had. Had three children be- e, and would suffer from twenty-four to thirty- hours before birth, but this time only two urs. Have a fine baby girl and she is the ost healthy one of all. I am still using the avorite Prescription' as a tonic."

ON TRIAL AGAIN

Nan Patterson Arraigned for Third Time on Murder Charge.

New York, April 17.—Nan Patterson was today arraigned for her third trial on the charge of murdering "Caesar" Young, a bookmaker. The prisoner is in excellent spirits and anxious that the trial shall go on without further delay. The first trial of the girl was suspended after several days had been consumed in securing a jury and after the taking of testimony had progressed to a critical point. One of the jurymen became ill, the attack becoming so serious as to necessitate the declaration of a mistrial. The second trial went to a conclusion but resulted in a disagreement of the jury, after the twelve men had deliberated for an entire day and night. The foreman reported to the court that the jury was hopelessly divided, so a mistrial was finally ordered. It was said afterward the jury stood six for acquittal and six for conviction.

The third trial was set for Monday, April 10, but was postponed until today at the request of the district attorney, who desired to have the matter of the extradition of the J. Morgan Smiths from Cincinnati settled before the hearing should proceed. It is said that Hyman Stern, the pawnbroker from whom it is alleged the pistol with which Young was killed was bought, has been unable to identify Smith and a serious question has arisen at the district attorney's office as to whether or not the Smiths will be called as witnesses.

CLUE TO WARSHIPS

Part of Rojestvensky's Fleet Sighted in a Bay Off Cochin China.

THAT WAS LAST FRIDAY

Since Then No Word Has Been Received Nor Is There Any Evidence of a Naval Battle.

Rumor of a Small Engagement Receives No Confirmation in Any Responsible Quarter.

St. Petersburg, April 17.—There is no information from Vice Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron, but the admiralty would not be surprised to learn of skirmishing between scout ships today or tomorrow and the inauguration of torpedo boat warfare soon is not unexpected. The naval organ here expresses the opinion that Togo was taken completely by surprise when Rojestvensky suddenly appeared at the entrance of the China sea, and is now concentrating his widely scattered fleet near the Pescadores, where it is believed a sea fight will probably occur.

London, April 17.—There is as yet no news of a naval battle in the far East or of the whereabouts of the rival fleets. The Hong Kong correspondent of the Daily Mail sends a rumor of a small engagement, but there is no confirmation of this report. Details regarding the Russian ships in Kamran bay, Cochin China, are too meager to be instructive. According to the Daily Mail's Singapore correspondent the North German Lloyd steamer, Prinz Heinrich, saw five battleships and six cruisers in the bay, but the dispatches to others of the London newspapers are not so precise. The Daily Telegraph's Singapore correspondent, like the Associated Press, merely reports "eighteen vessels and adds that the captain of the Prinz Heinrich states that possibly more war ships were inside the harbor, but that they were invisible from the offing.

The presence of the Russian squadron off the Annam coast is arousing keen interest here, in view of the possibility of their infringing Chinese neutrality and of the likelihood of Rojestvensky having had to split his squadron. The Morning Post's correspondent at Shanghai telegraphs that China has instructed the governors of the Southern provinces to maintain strict neutrality in view of the possibility of Russian ships sheltering there.

Russian Squadron Sighted.

Singapore, April 17.—The North German Lloyd steamship Prinz Heinrich reports that she sighted eighteen vessels of the Russian Baltic squadron in Kamran bay, about 200 miles northeast of Saigon, at noon on Friday last. The steamer did not sight any Japanese warships.

FROM THE FRONT

Japanese Advices of a Brisk Minor Engagement.

Tokio, April 17.—The following official announcement was made Sunday: "The force advancing north from Singking, driving the enemy before them, occupied Yingecheng, thirty-eight miles north of Singking at 1 o'clock on the afternoon of April 14. A detachment of the same force, cooperating with cavalry, occupied Pachiatzu at 6 o'clock in the evening of the same day. The enemy's force near Pachiatz consisted of seven sotnias of cavalry and one battery of artillery. They first retreated toward Yingecheng, then came back to Pachiatzu. Finding it occupied, they were thrown into confusion and retreated in great disorder over Peling pass, two miles north of Pachiatzu. There is no change elsewhere."

More Anti-Jewish Demonstrations.

St. Petersburg, April 17.—Serious disturbances of an anti-semitic character, in which soldiers of the garrison joined, is reported to have occurred at Chelyebinsk. In Orenburg several public buildings have been sacked. Troops have been sent there to restore order.

Thirty Thousand in Parade.

Tokio, April 17.—Thirty thousand employes of the arsenal paraded Sunday in celebration of the fall of Mukden. They visited the palace and cheered the emperor and afterwards went to the war and navy departments and cheered the ministers and their staffs.

Defense Zones Proclaimed.

Tokio, April 17.—The navy department has proclaimed defense zones surrounding the Pescadores, the Island of Okinawa in the Loochoo group, and the Islands of Oshima and Emi off the province of Osumi. The usual navigation restrictions apply.

Serious Labor Disturbances.

St. Petersburg, April 17.—Almost a state of siege exists in the Narva quarter, owing to the suspension of the Putiloff iron works. Soldiers are stationed inside the works and Cossacks and police swarm in the surrounding streets.

A NEW PHASE OF IT

"The Yellow Peril" Is Again Claiming Discussion.

St. Petersburg, April 17.—The Novoe Vremya prints a dispatch from New York saying that "the yellow peril" is now not derided. Farseeing business men with their eyes on the Chinese markets have, according to this dispatch, finally awakened to the growing political influence of Japan over China and the prospect of complete industrial domination in the future. American hostility to Russia, the dispatch continues, is really not against Russian occupation of Manchuria, but is due to the belief that it intended to monopolize the trade of this rich Chinese province. The dispatch says the existence of a secret Chino-Japan treaty is already hinted, and adds, "the danger theatens Europe as well as America; and if Rojestvensky is beaten, all the powers, under the leadership of America, may join to make peace."

Editorializing on this dispatch the Novo Vremya says it is no longer the "Yellow Peril" which Europe and America are facing, and refers to the words of a French savant, who, when asked how long the war would last, replied, "Two hundred years. Europe does not seem to understand the horrible truth."

The Novoe Vremya predicts that "The enigma of the future historian will be the indifference, even the hostility of some European nations toward the great struggle between Japan and Russia, which reads inevitably a conflict between Asia and Europe," and quotes the words of the vice governor of Jerusalem on the awakening of the Arabs in Asiatic Turkey to show the deep seated hatred of Asia toward all Europeans and the eventual menace to Europe—not the Yellow, but the Asiatic peril.

Dismissed the Congregation.

St. Louis, April 17.—Captain James A. Rider, sixty-six years old, for four years the janitor of the St. James Memorial Episcopal church, committed suicide Sunday by shooting in a room adjoining the auditorium, where the rector of the church was conducting devotional services. The sound of the shot was plainly heard by the congregation, but there was no excitement. One of the vestrymen investigated and reported to Dr. Duckworth, who announced from the pulpit a brief statement of what had occurred. He requested that the congregation leave the church at once.

Serious Cutting Affray.

Mattoon, Ill., April 17.—Thomas Beveridge, twenty-three years old, nephew of United States Senator Beveridge of Indiana, seriously stabbed James Datewood, Sunday. The fight followed a quarrel in a saloon. Datewood assaulted Beveridge, who drew a knife and slashed him in the face and side. While attempting to escape arrest Beveridge was shot twice by an officer. Both injured men are in the hospital, but will recover. Warrants have been issued for their arrest as soon as they are able to leave the hospital.

President in a Blizzard.

Newcastle, Col., April 17.—A fierce blizzard raged at Camp Roosevelt, 25 miles south of here, Sunday. So violent was the storm that no one ventured out of doors. The greater part of the day was spent by the president and party around the camp-fires, telling hunting stories.

Pull a Hair From Your Head

Does your hair need nourishment? Is it thinning out, getting dry, harsh and brittle or splitting at the ends? The way to find out for yourself is to make an actual test that you can see and understand. Pull a hair from the top of your head, examine the root. If the bulb is plump and rosy it is all right, but if it is white and shrunken your hair is diseased and needs nourishment. Rexall "93" Hair Tonic supplies this need. It is a germ destroying nutritive hair tonic. It first of all destroys the germs that are causing the trouble at the white and shrunken roots, then it tones up the hair follicles. A new growth of hair begins at once and the hair soon regains its youthful color and lustre. It makes an excellent dressing, delightfully perfumed and conveniently put up in a handy sprinkler top bottle. We sell a large bottle for fifty cents that we guarantee to give satisfaction or we return you your money. You will find that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic backs up all the claims we make for it.

THE SIMPLE LIFE

Vice President Fairbanks Enjoying a Season of Quiet Leisure.

Indianapolis, April 17.—Vice President Fairbanks, who came home two weeks ago, is living more quietly than at any other time since his first election to the senate. He is enjoying his beautiful North Meridian street residence. Generally his trips to Indianapolis have been interrupted by an almost constant stream of job-hunters, but having no patronage to dispose of, they are not molesting him. The vice president, however, is an inveterate worker, so time does not hang heavily on his hands. It has been the custom of his life to be up and dressed before 6 in the morning, and he is still a very early riser. He enjoys work, but the last year and a half have been unusually strenuous, so he has relaxed for the present. He is sticking closely to his home, but many party leaders and social friends are visiting him. So far there is no evidence that he is paying the slightest attention to party affairs in Indiana, but it is probable that he has his weather eye on the situation, as he generally knows what is going on about him. The vice president has no definite plans for his summer vacation, but he will probably spend most of it in Indianapolis. It is home to him and he likes it thoroughly. He has accepted invitations to deliver a number of speeches. He will return to Washington shortly to preside over a congress of railway men, but he will not be away from here long.

Owing to the wrangle over the selection of delegates, considerable interest is displayed by the Republican leaders in the outcome of the First district congressional convention at Rockport tomorrow. It is generally believed that George A. Cunningham of Evansville will be returned a winner, inasmuch as he is the only candidate from Evansville. It is said that he has twice as many votes as John W. Brady of Princeton, his only opponent, but Brady is putting up a hot fight. The convention promises to attract most of the candidates for places on the state ticket who will be given a chance to electioneer. It is not known who the Democrats will nominate. Most any of the party leaders could have the place on the ticket merely by asking for it, as there is not even a faint hope of defeating the Republican nominee under present conditions. Cunningham, who seems to have the cards to succeed to Senator Hemenway's old place, is a politician of the machine type and a lawyer of considerable ability. He has enjoyed a large corporation business for several years, and many wonder at his accepting a nomination for congress. He has been district chairman most of the time since Senator Hemenway was elected to congress ten years ago.

Attorney General Miller, at the request of State Superintendent of Public Instruction Cotton, rendered an opinion on the teachers' minimum wage law enacted by a recent legislature. Miller holds the law constitutional and declares all contracts made in conflict with it as void. In Switzerland, Gibson and other counties trustees have disregarded the law, employing teachers at figures lower than the minimum scale. Miller says the state cannot have good schools without well-qualified teachers, and that the latter cannot be obtained unless good wages are paid. He adds that the legislature has a right to fix the minimum wage and prescribe qualifications for teachers and to prevent the employment of those who are unqualified. The minimum wage law, he says, is not for the benefit of the teacher, but for the benefit of the schools and the public, and all contracts made in conflict with it are void. The decision is of far-reaching significance in an educational way, and Superintendent Cotton says he proposes to proceed at once to enforce the law.

DIED

WHITMER—Dr. H. C. Whitmer died at his home on North Chestnut Street about six o'clock on Sunday morning April 16th, of progressive pernicious anaemia. He had been in ill health for the past year, but was not confined to his room until the last two weeks.

Dr. Whitmer was born at Maxville, Ohio, January 1st, 1865. His boyhood days were spent at Rushville, Ohio, at which place he was married in 1885 to Miss Ida Gertrude Parks. He was a successful business man in Ohio and came to Indiana in 1891. He located at Salem and began the proprietary medicine business, in which he was engaged up to the time of his death. He was at Salem for eight years when he came to Seymour in 1899. Since his residence here he has quietly gone his way, while his business increased wonderfully and he won for himself a host of friends, to whom his death comes as a great sorrow.

Mr. Whitmer's life of forty years was one of great worth to those by whom he was surrounded. He was of a retiring disposition, but he was one who was of purely unselfish motives and worked good whenever the opportunity presented itself. A member of the First Presbyterian Church, he was a good christian man and was earnest in his work. He was at all times a most devoted husband and a kind father. The care and loving thoughtfulness for his family formed one of the major parts of his life. His character was such that his death brings grief to the hearts of many who knew him.

He leaves a wife and one son, Emerald, sixteen years of age. His only daughter died at the age of nine on April 23, 1896. His father, Joshua Whitmer, and wife, are living at Rushville, Ohio. Of seven boys he is the first to die. His brothers are Rev. A. B. Whitmer, of Central City, Kansas, C. M. Whitmer, of Portsmouth, Ohio; R. F. Whitmer, of Lockseven, Va; Edward Whitmer, of Rushville, Ohio; Frank Whitmer, of Columbus, Ohio and A. B. Whitmer, of Thurston, Ohio. His three sisters now living are Mrs. C. E. Copeland, of Rushville, Ohio; Mrs. T. H. Griffin, of Columbus, Ohio and Mrs. C. E. Turner, of Chicago, Ill.

The funeral services will be held at the home at 201 North Chestnut Street Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. G. W Shields, of the First Presbyterian church will be in charge of the services.

The body of Dr. H. C. Whitmer will lie in state at the residence tomorrow forenoon from 10 o'clock until 12 o'clock noon.

LAWS IN EFFECT.

Everybody Studying the Provisions of the New Acts.

Saturday evening the new laws enacted by the last legislature went into effect by the proclamation of Governor Hanly. They have been printed and distributed a month or more earlier than in the past. The work done by the secretary of state and his office force is especially commendable.

The new laws make a book of 866 pages, larger than usual, made so by the enactment of laws prepared by the codification commission.

The change of the law relative to the government of cities and towns concerns an unusual number of people and it will take some time for the people to understand it all. The mode of government of cities and the manner of conducting municipal business has been changed very materially.

The law prohibiting the sale and use of cigarettes has caused more talk here today than any other. It will not be safe while this law is in force for any one to sell, or to be found with cigarettes or cigarette papers on his person. The Seymour dealers have some unsold stock on hand but we understand they will take no chances on a fine of not less than $25 and costs. The law will be enforced, we understand, throughout the state.

GOOD NEWS.

Many Seymour Readers Have Heard it And Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Seymour are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. L. T. Gorrell, of 709 Brown street says: "I derived great benefit from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. My son also suffered a great deal from his kidneys and the use of Doan's Kidney Pills built him up and after taking them he had no further annoyance. My husband suffered much from a lame back, did not sleep well nights on account of the pain and a kidney weakness. He says he never had a medicine do him as much good as Doan's Kidney Pills. I have no hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills at every opportunity which occurs.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

New Laws Are Effective.

Indianapolis, April 17.—The acts of the legislature of 1905 have been promulgated by Governor Hanly. The proclamation was issued a month earlier than usual, as the governor wanted the new municipal code to take effect in time to govern the spring elections by the new law. There was no emergency clause to the municipal code, and as a matter of form spring elections would have been necessary if it had not become a law before the first week in May. The governor was able to issue the proclamation much earlier than usual, owing to the splendid work done by Deputy Secretary of State Frank I. Grubbs in getting the copy of the acts ready for the state printer. The record for rapid work in this line is now held by Mr. Grubbs.

Incendiarism Suspected.

Diamond, Ind., April 17.—Fire almost wiped out the business portion of this place, entailing a loss of about $20,000. The fire is thought to be of incendiary origin and to have some connection with the feud which resulted in the shooting of Marshal Albert Byers a week ago Sunday night by Jesse Dowen.

Placed Gun in His Mouth.

Plymouth, Ind., April 17.—Joseph Norris, a farmer fifty years old and unmarried, committed suicide. He placed the muzzle of a shotgun in his mouth, pulled the trigger and blew the side of his head off. He made a similar attempt six months ago.

Double Murder in Canada.

Penetanguishene, Ont., April 17.—Mrs. Des Roche and her daughter Annie were murdered in their home and their bodies thrown into the cellar after having been stripped of their clothing. The murderer used an ax. Mrs. Des Roche was about fifty years old and the girl fourteen years old. The woman was separated from her husband. No arrests have been made.

Lost Guns and Stores.

Constantinople, April 17.—News received here from Hedeida is to the effect that the situation at Sana is precarious, necessitating a new relief expedition because General Riza Pacha, aide de camp to the sultan, lost all his guns and stores in recently fighting his way into Sanaa.

Pains and aches such as neuralgia, lumbago, sciatica, and rheumatic pains seem to be quite prevalent in Seymour just now. Dr. Dawson is treating a large number of such cases some of which are long standing, and under the old regime of treatment have gradually been growing worse. So far in every case relief has been afforded and a cure will be perfected. Osteopathy cures by locating and correcting the cause of diseased conditions

WOMAN'S WORLD

MISS LUCY DOGGETT.

Food Chemist of the Illinois State Food Commission.

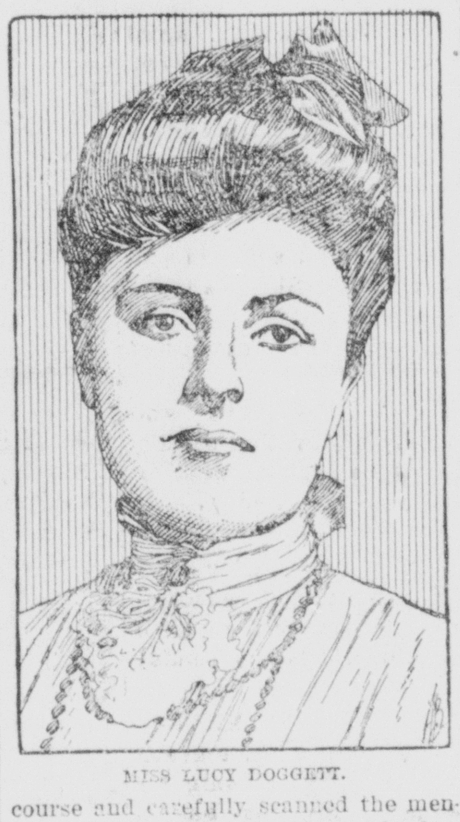
In Chicago there is a pretty young woman who by pluck and spunk has won the proud title of the only feminine food chemist in the world.

Her name is Lucy Doggett, and she has come to be the principal reliance of the Illinois state food commission.

Miss Doggett is slender and youthful, with a girlish trick of blushing at slightest complimentary mention of her distinctive abilities and attainments.

"Food chemistry" the pretty pioneer regards as opening the gate of a new, attractive and ever widening field of feminine effort. Her own triumphant entry into this field came about through a combination of wise forethought, careful preparation and happy chance.

A little more than five years ago Miss Doggett, whose home is in McKinney, Tex., concluded her high school course and carefully scanned the mental horizon for a suitable profession. Always interested and gifted in scientific directions, she chose the work of a dispensing chemist as the best fitted for future endeavors.



MISS LUCY DOGGETT.

After looking into this line of work more fully, however, she decided against it; but, as chemical work still appealed to her, she cast about for another opening. The Illinois food commission having been established and in need of trained chemical assistants, it occurred to Miss Doggett that here was her opportunity. The novelty of a woman seeking the work in hand was so out of the ordinary that the gentlemen at the head of the commission were at first inclined to turn the fair chemical expert down, but as she had strong letters of recommendation they concluded to "let her try." That was several years ago, and Miss Doggett is still a highly valued member of the staff of the Illinois state food commission.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Couldn't Bear to Leave Farm.

Winchester, Ind., April 17.—Because the man who bought his farm refused to sell it back again, D. L. Stone, a wealthy farmer living fourteen miles northeast of here, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. When the purchaser of his farm refused a bonus of $1,000 for his farm, Stone became despondent. Stone's father and mother committed suicide in a like manner a few years ago.

Thieves Invade Home of Sorrow.

New Castle, Ind., April 17.—While the seven-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cluggish lay in its coffin in their home thieves entered the house and stole $20 in money. The robbery was a very bold one, as friends and relatives were at the Cluggish home day and night. The loss was not discovered until after the funeral.

Will Try It Again.

Lafayette, Ind., April 17.—A special session of the grand jury has been called to make another investigation in the case of Attorney Eacock charged with blackmail and attempt to blackmail. Eacock was recently indicted, but escaped prosecution by a motion to quash the indictments.

Woman Guilty of Murder.

Logansport, Ind., April 17.—A jury in the Cass circuit court returned a verdict finding Blanche Mitchell, colored, slayer of Ella Swisher, guilty of murder in the second degree and fixing her punishment at imprisonment for life. She was taken to the woman's prison at Indianapolis at once.

Threatening Blaze at Frankfort.

Frankfort, Ind., April 17.—Fire did damage estimated at $30,000 in the Meifeld building and others adjoining, and for a time threatened the entire east side of the public square.

Sunday's Score.

Serious Labor Disturbances.

St. Petersburg, April 17.—Almost a state of siege exists in the Narva quarter, owing to the suspension of the Putiloff iron works. Soldiers are stationed inside the works and Cossacks and police swarm in the surrounding streets.

H. C. Dannettell, as agent, has sold S. A. Barnes' lot at the corner of Sixth and Walnut streets, to E. L. Brown who will build a residence for himself there. The lot is a very desirable one.

IN A FEW DAYS

We shall have with us again that brighest, gayest season of the year—that season that bespeaks flowers and blossoming trees and twittering birds: the season of change from the old to the new.—Easter.

The Gold Mine.

We have searched the markets well. In the Millinery Department we have covered the wholesale field for new styles, new shapes and new effects, and from the modest street hat to the ultra-modest dress article. We have endeavored to combine in the highest possible degree—style, workmanship, quality and price. There is no recent style which is not represented in our Hat Department—no effect which our trimming force can not produce.

In the Dress Goods Department our shelves seem alive with their colors and shades which, blending and contrasting, seem to be holding an Easter Celebration in this department itself. We have earnestly endeavored to secure our share of seasonable merchandise in this line and believe we have succeeded.

In the fashionable cloths—Mohairs, Eoliennes, wool and Silk Voiles—throughout the entire line of fashionable fabrics we are fully prepared to meet your every want, and at prices that are hardly in keeping with the splendid offerings in this line.

A very recent New York invoice enables us to show you a line of Silks in Waistings and Suitings which is absolutely beyond any local competition. The late shades which have appeared within just the last few weeks are here fully represented.

In the Wash Goods Department is the largest and most select line in Southern Indiana. Mercerized fabrics in Waistings and Suitings that rival Silk itself are here in Mohairs, Etamines, Shantungs, Silk, Ginghams Zephyrs and Muslins, Eoliennes, Soisettes and Fil de Soies. In White Goods our line is excellent, and new patterns are added thereto almost daily.

Our Ready-to-Wear Department is fully able to cater to the most fastidious trade, and welcomes inspections and comparisons with other lines. Dozens of new suits fresh from Eastern designers are now in; these are not on sale at fancy prices, but on the basis of regular stock.

Shirtwaists in every conceivable style and effect are here—all that you have seen in the Fashion Journals and scores of others besides. In this department your attention is invited to our extra large invoice of Ready-to-Wear Skirts—these at prices which are ridiculous at this season of the year.

Over the entire store are scattered new things for Eastertide. There are new designs in belts, in ladies' and children's neck wear, in hand bags, in hosiery novelties in the thousand-and-one things which go to complete the femimine wardrobe of necessities and luxuries.

There are many new things in Muslin underwear which you most certainly must appreciate if you but see them.

And just now the dutiful house-wife is busy planning for the renewing and beautifying of the home. Let us say that in our basement we are well stocked with all sorts of conveniences to help you in this work—from carpet tacks to ready mixed paints. Here also is our big line of glassware, china, tin, and granite wares, etc.

In our Carpet Department is every weave and design known to the carpet and matting trade. Our orders which were placed six mouths ago, before the recent advance in raw material in this line, enable us to undersell all competition in carpets, mattings, rugs, linoleums and oilcloths.

Don't forget that our big stock and large purchasing power in lace curtains, door panels and window shades means a saving to you.

THE GOLD MINE DEPARTMENT STORE

Our Scale of Prices is Just as Honest As Our Weight Scales Are

Both of these are guaranteed to be perfectly "straight." Please remember that fact when you are ready to order your fuel and ice for Spring and and Summer. Order a ton of

Black Creek Soft Coal

From us, and you'll not only get 2,000 pounds of coal, but also the best low priced fuel on the market for making the small fires in the grate that are often needed on cool days and nights of Spring and Summer.

Ebner's Ice is Absolutely Pure.

It is the best, cleanest and clearest ice to be obtained in the state. The Pure Food Commissioner has a standing invitation to inspect our ice at any time he may see fit to do so.

ECZEMA A FLESH FIRE

Those afflicted with Eczema know more than can be told of the suffering imposed by this "flesh fire." It usually begins with a slight redness of the skin, which gradually spreads, followed by blisters and pustules discharging a thin, sticky fluid that dries and scales off, leaving an inflamed surface, and at times the itching and burning are almost unbearable. While any part of the body is liable to be attacked, the hands, feet, back, arms, face and legs are the parts most often afflicted. The cause of Eczema is a too acid condition of the blood. The circulation becomes loaded with fiery, acid poisons that are forced through the glands and pores of the skin which set the flesh aflame. Since the cause of the disease is in the blood it is a waste of time to try to cure it with local applications; the cause must be removed before a cure can be effected. S. S. S. has no equal as a remedy for Eczema; it enters the blood and forces out the poison through the natural channels, and builds up the entire system. The skin becomes smooth and soft again, and the Eczema is cured. Cases that have persistently refused to be cured under the ordinary treatment yield to its purifying, cooling effect on the blood. Book on Skin Diseases and any advice wished, without charge.

Eczema made its appearanee on my left limb the size of my thumb in 1893, and spread until it was large as my hand, burning, itching and paining me, and for which I could get no relief, until seeing the other cures advertised by you I wrote and secured the advise of your physicians, commenced S. S. S. and it cured me.

MILLER ON TRIAL

Much Interest Centers in Prosecuting Attorney's Hearing.

MISCONDUCT IS ALLEGED

Movement to Impeach Public Prosecutor Will Be Followed by Disbarment Proceedings.

A Similar Case Against Miller's Law Partner Will Come Up at Next Term.

Bloomington, Ind., April 17.—The case against Prosecuting Attorney Robert G. Miller of this district for alleged misconduct in carrying out his duties came to trial today. Although Miller's attorneys have entered demurrers, pleas of abatement, denials of the court's authority and the like, they now say they are ready to fight the case on its merits. The prosecuting committee will first try to impeach Miller. There are three methods of doing this under the statute, and the committee has taken the one by means of affidavits.

Judge John C. Robinson of Spencer is sitting in the case, as Judge Wilson is to be used as a witness by the defense. Sheriff Hough has summoned over fifty witnesses. It is said that some persons, fearing to testify in the case, have left the city. As it is the first case of the kind that ever came before the Monroe county court it is thought it will move slowly and occupy all the week for testimony. After the impeachment proceedings are disposed of the court will take up the disbarment case against Miller. A similar case against Miller's law partner, A. M. Hadley, will not be tried until the next term of court.

SERIOUS CHURCH ROW

Question of Church Policy Ends in Preacher Using Knife.

Lebanon, Ind., April 17.—A sensation was created here when it became known that the Rev. John Dodge, pastor of the Holiness church here, had stabbed and seriously injured Oscar Johnson, a member of his congregation, in a quarrel which grew out of a discussion of church policy in a meeting of the congregation. The pastor took sides in the argument, and when Miss Mamie Chambers, a young church worker, took a decided position on the opposite side from him, the two locked horns. Their quarrel grew so heated that Miss Chambers lost her temper and gave the pastor a smart slap in the face. The pastor's wife was an onlooker and had remained silent until the blow was delivered. Then she made for Miss Chambers and the two fought up and down the church aisles.

Seeing that Miss Chambers bade fair to get the worst of the fight, Oscar Johnson, said to be Miss Chambers' sweetheart, jumped into the fray to take the part of the young woman. At this point the preached is alleged to have drawn his knife, sprung upon Johnson and plunged the blade deep into his back.

Johnson was carried to the office of a physician nearby, where his wounds were dressed. The physician states that Johnson will live unless complications set in. The Rev. Mr. Dodge was arrested on a charge of assault and battery. He gave bond for his release.

Weak Stomach.

A weak stomach is most frequently caused by the overworked and exhausted nervous system.

The power that runs the stomach is the nerve force sent to it from the brain through the nerves. When the nerves are weak or exhausted the supply of energy is insufficient and the action of the stomach is impaired, and results in imperfect digestion—dyspepsia.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine increases nerve force. It strengthens and builds up nerve tissue, gives vigor to the nerves and muscles of the stomach; this produces a healthy activity.

Nervine allays the inflammation, heals the membranes, and makes the stomach strong and healthy. There is nothing that so quickly gives energy to the whole system as Restorative Nervine.

"I can't say enough for Dr. Miles' Nervine. I don't know what it will do for others, but it certainly cured me of stomach trouble, and now I am as well as I ever was. Two physicians failed to relieve me, but in three or four days after taking Nervine I was much relieved. Four bottles made me a sound man, at the cost of $4.00."

JAMES E. HART, Detroit, Mich.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

Big Bridge About Ready.

St. Louis, April 17.—The new steel bridge constructed by the St. Louis Southwestern railway over the Mississippi river at Thebes, Ill., will be opened to traffic tomorrow. The bridge was erected at a cost of $3,500,000 and three years of labor. It is a double-tracked, high level structure, the plan involving what is known as the fixed, through and cantilever spans. There are five spans. The bridge is 231 feet high, 2,807 feet in length. The opening of the structure to traffic will cause the ferryboats to be abandoned and result in shortening the Cotton Belt's schedule time.

His Sixth Victim.

Albany, Ga., April 17.—John Manier, marshal of Pretoria, Ga., was shot and almost instantly killed Saturday night by Pete Thomas, a negro. Thomas had been creating some disorder. The negro was captured about noon Sunday by Sheriff Edwards, having been twice wounded as he ran from the scene of the tragedy. He made the statement to the officer who arrested him that Manier was the sixth man whose life he had taken.

SECRET SESSIONS

Will Mark the Coming Meeting of the International Railway Congress.

A THOUSAND DELEGATES

Forty-Four Countries and Four Hundred Thousand Miles of Railway Will Be Represented.

Vice President Fairbanks, as Honorary President, Will Open the Congress.

Washington, April 17.—Nearly one thousand delegates, the owners and operating officials of upward of 400,000 miles of railway in forty-four different countries, constitute the personnel of the International Railway Congress, which is to hold a ten days' session in this city beginning May 4 next. At the close of the congress the delegates are to make a thorough inspection of the railways of the United States, particularly with reference to equipment and shops. The congress is somewhat unique in its organization, purposes and manner of conducting its affairs. It was organized in 1885 and has held sessions every five years since. Its first session, held in Brussels, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the opening of the Belgian railways. Milan, Paris, St. Petersburg and London have been meeting-places since, Paris having had two sessions. At the session in that city in 1900, the invitation of President McKinley to hold the next meeting in Washington was accepted. Congress at its last session enacted appropriate legislation, committing this government to participation in the congress.

In the absence of President Roosevelt, Vice President Fairbanks will accept the post of honorary president and open the congress with an address of welcome, afterward extending the courtesies of the nation to the delegates at the White House.

The preliminary formalities over, the congress will resolve itself in five sections and proceed to its discussions in French and in secret. All of the papers to be presented have been under consideration for some years, all have been printed and the delegates are thoroughly familiar with their contents. All of the topics to be considered are technical and necessarily devoid of popular interest.

The honorary presidents, representing the railways of this country, will be Messrs. A. J. Cassatt and E. H. Harriman, while the actual president will be Stuyvesant Fish of the Illinois Central railroad. The lines these three gentlemen represent touch one another and form a continuous line of rail from the Atlantic to the Pacific, passing through the heart of the continent and extending from the great lakes to the gulf.

NEW LAW ENFORCED

St. Louis Finds That It Can Go "Dry" for a Day.

St. Louis, April 17.—For the first time in six years St. Louis has been a "dry" town for twenty-four hours and for the first time in history the "dryness" has been complete, even side doors being closed. Not only was yesterday a dry Sunday, but it was a shaveless, shineless, smokeless and almost a hungry Sunday as well. Promptly at midnight Saturday night the saloon lights were extinguished and the patrons were requested to depart at once. Barber shops immediately closed, news and cigar stands followed suit, small grocery shops and delicatessen stores shut up shop and the large downtown restaurants did not open their doors Sunday.

Algiers Shows Enthusiasm.

Algiers, April 17.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra arrived here Sunday on board the British Royal yacht Victoria and Albert. The French and British men-of-war in the harbor saluted the royal yacht. Visits were exchanged with the governor. The populace showed great enthusiasm. King Edward remained on board the yacht.

Victims of Open Gas Burner.

Philadelphia, April 17.—Louis Heck, jr., musical director of Keith's Chestnut street theater, and his wife, known on the stage as May Bell Eckert, were found asphyxiated by gas Sunday in the bedroom of their apartment in this city. Two burners of a chandelier in the room were open, it is believed by accident.

Strike Settlement Promised.

Chicago, April 17.—Labor leaders are in conference today with Mayor Dunne, who says that he has hopes of an early settlement of the teamsters' strike against Montgomery Ward & Co. The coal teamsters have decided to refuse to haul coal to the Montgomery Ward building.
